Statement of Purpose

Our electronic and printed newsletters are educational and informational publications of Habitat for Humanity Kansas City. Their purpose is to share the story of Habitat for Humanity's house-building, hope-building work in the urban core of Kansas City, Missouri and to invite interested visitors to be part of those efforts. Habitat for Humanity Kansas City works in partnership with God and people everywhere, from all walks of life, to develop communities by building and renovating houses, so that there are decent homes in decent communities in which people can live and grow into all that God intended. We welcome all volunteers, donors and families who share a vision of a world without shacks.
